

Student-Centered IEP Development Across the Lifespan: A Guide to Empowering Student Participation in the IEP Process

Join the High Quality IEPs Project for a professional learning workshop series focusing on building student voice and agency throughout the IEP process regardless of age.

Presenters:

Jesse Rodriguez

Consultant and Technical Assistance Provider

Kendal Swartzentruber

Consultant and Technical Assistance Provider

Collaborating together to cultivate, facilitate, and support student participation in the IEP Process

Series will include:

Cultivating an understanding of what meaningful participation for students looks like in the IEP process.

Recognizing the core components of self-determination and ways to infuse opportunities to practice them into the IEP process to build post-secondary success, starting at the earliest of ages.

Highlighting the IEP process as an ongoing, cyclical journey with before, during, and after phases, and the meaningful engagement opportunities that exist in each of these phases for our students.

Audience:

Educators, including: General and Special Education teachers, service providers, & administrators

Virtual Training Series

Session 1: April 23rd Time: 3:30-5:00 pm

Session 2: April 30th Time: 3:30-4:45 pm

Session 3: May 7th Time: 3:30-5:00 pm

Session 4: May 14th Time: 3:30-4:45 pm

Session 5: May 21st Time: 3:30-5:00 pm

Session 6: May 28th Time: 3:30-4:45 pm

Session 7: June 4th Time: 3:30-5:00 pm

*Sessions build on one another and attendance is highly encouraged for all sessions.

Click Here to Register